Location: Stewart Park Pavilion, Roseburg, OR 97471

Date: Saturday, April 11th, 2015

Why we celebrate:

Arbor Day is America's National Tree Holiday that has been celebrated on the last Friday in April since 1872. Most States also have their own designated Arbor Days. Oregon chose to set aside the first entire week of April to honor trees. Come join the fun and learn all about trees at the BLM hosted Arbor Week celebration!!

What we are doing:

Seedlings will be available for free at this event while supplies last! There will also be an Arborist and several Forestry professionals on hand to answer all of your questions about trees!

You will also find fun interactive tree related activities for kids and adults alike! Enjoy decorating your own tree disc, explore how to age a tree, use tree foliage stamps to make crafted items, and learn about identifying tree foliage, cones, and seeds.

Refreshments will be provided.
