Wildlife in Managed Forests: Practical Skills Workshop

March 14, 2013
Linn County Fair and Expo, Albany, OR

Come join us for the day to explore tough management issues facing forest landowners, wildlife biologists, foresters, and other natural resource managers. This workshop is designed to address a variety of important topics and provide participants with practical tools that can be implemented on various landscapes. Participants will have an opportunity to interact with wildlife experts and discuss management issues at the breaks.
